

Children's Book Assignment

This assignment involves you accessing and interacting with online children's books. Please note that this does not include all books that are available in the traditional book format. There are two sub-assignments in this section. First one is in relation to your past experience and the second sub-assignment centers on your selecting a children's book that is new to you and appropriate for a young child.

The TumbleBook Library

A collection of TumbleBooks (animated, talking picture books) TumbleBooks are created from existing picture books which they are licensed from children's book publishers. Here are the steps for you to experience and interact with online children's books.

1. Explore the website and get a feel for how it works and what it has to offer. Remember to take notes on your actual process of navigation, interaction with this website, your thoughts, and your feelings. Being aware of how you relate to learning helps you to think about how you as an individual learn and what might be of your learning preferences and/or challenges.
