

Cuba Education Tours has seven island programs for 2009 and 2010.

They are among the few learning and cultural tours to Cuba available and licensable for American educators.

Elaborate itineraries and details are available at <http://CubaFriends.com>

The tours are open to all, however our August program is nearly full.

EDUCATORS Teachers Introduction to Cuba Tour from August 1 to 8, 2009 is a comprehensive look at the island's education system and includes many cultural components as well as a look at ecology in Cuba. It is a favorite with educators and their partners.

BOOMERS Elder Cuba Friendship Tour from November 20 to 29, 2009 crosses the island from Havana to Santiago de Cuba. It's ten days to really get to know Cuba and its people. It's geared to the boomer generation, but is also an occasion for family travel.

ADVENTURERS Cuban Holiday Discovery Tour from December 24, 2009 to January 2, 2010 is our only fully inclusive program. It is ten days of history, culture, nature and the beach. It is popular with families and close friends. It takes place over Christmas and New Years.

FRIENDS OF CUBA 51st Anniversary of the Cuban Revolution Tour from December 27, 2009 to January 3, 2010 is for people who want to celebrate five decades of Cuban social accomplishments with islanders. The program covers 51 years of health, arts, ecology and history.

EDUCATORS Teachers Introduction to Cuba Tour from December 27, 2009 to January 3, 2010 looks at Cuba's system of universal education and you'll be in Cuba to celebrate New Years with islanders and enjoy their culture.

JAZZ FANS Havana International Jazz Festival Cuba Tour from February 7 to 16, 2010 is for jazz fiends to learn all about the island and rub shoulders with Latin jazz greats from around the world.

BOOK PEOPLE Librarians, Writers and Bibliophiles Havana Book Fair Tour from February 13 to 20, 2010 attracts friends of the written word from North America and beyond. It reviews all aspects of Cuban libraries, and literary and cultural production. The book fair is the most important in the Spanish-speaking world.

We're here to help you experience Cuba. Please feel welcome to call or email us.
