

OneBook Student Art Award

Put your creative talents to work!

Many of you are reading The Things They Carry by Tim O'Brien this fall, a collection of short stories about the Vietnam War, filled with vivid imagery. We would like to showcase your visual responses to the book. Any student currently enrolled at BCC is invited to create and submit some form of visual expression related in some way to the book. This is open to students in all disciplines.

Your artwork could be anything from a poster, painting, sculpture, or puppet to a comic strip or a storyboard for time-based media and needs to be either (1) about the book in some way, or (2) inspired by some theme in the book, but not necessarily related directly at all to the book. The project description you put on your entry form must explain the connection of your artwork to the book. If your work is chosen for exhibition, your project description will be displayed with your work.

Selected entries will be displayed in the Brick area of H building. In addition, there will be a first place award of $100, a second place award of $50 (both sponsored by the BCC Foundation), and honorable mentions presented to the winning students at our closing OneBook event on December 8th in the Jackson Arts Center Theater, 12:30-2:30.

Submissions will be accepted no later than Friday, December 2, 2011 at 2:30 in H213 (Erik Durant's office, erik.durant@bristolcc.edu) and H215 (Marisa Millard's office, Marisa.millard@bristolcc.edu). Entries will be judged by a panel of BCC Art Program instructors. All submissions must be original work and accompanied by an official Entry form, including project description.

Entry forms will be available in H building, as well as in the Library and K119.

Bristol Community College 2011 OneBook Art Contest

Art Contest Submission Policies

1. Only current BCC students are eligible for the contest.
2. All creative work must be accompanied by a completed entry form and should be ready to display.
3. Art Contest submissions will be accepted no later than Friday, December 2, 2011 at 2:30 in H213 (Erik Durant's office, erik.durant@bristolcc.edu) and H215 (Marisa Millard's office, Marisa.millard@bristolcc.edu). No entries will be accepted after 2:30 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 2nd.
4. Entries will be judged on Friday December 2nd, after 2 p.m. and winners will be notified by phone or email. In addition, winners and juror's choice entries will be displayed in the Brick area of H building for two weeks.
5. Although precautions are taken to secure and care for all submissions, all entries are left at the owner's risk. BCC is not responsible for theft or damage to any work. Your signature on the entry form means you have read and understood the above statement.
6. All entries must represent your own work without inappropriate assistance of any kind. Plagiarism will immediately disqualify an entry.
7. All entries must be a response to the subject or theme/s of the BCC One Book for 2011, The Things They Carry by Tim O'Brien. A student may submit a maximum of two entries.
8. All prizes will be awarded at the final One Book ceremony ~~(date and time to be announced)~~.
9. Please be aware that entries may be published and distributed in some format: this may include publication on the web and for educational purposes including distribution in the classroom and at conferences. By submitting your work, you are permitting the publication and distribution of your work.

Bristol Community College
2011 OneBook Art Contest

ENTRY FORM

Make sure all information is typed or printed legibly:

Name: _____ Student ID # _____

Address: _____

Phone number _____ Prefer phone contact? Y ___ N___

Email address: _____ Prefer email contact? Y ___ N___

Attach typed Project description (media used, approach, how it connects to The Things They Carried...)

The creative piece that I am submitting represents my work and I have not received inappropriate assistance of any kind nor have I plagiarized. Additionally, I grant permission to have my artwork published and distributed.

Although precautions are taken to secure and care for all submissions, all entries are left at the owner's risk. BCC is not responsible for theft or damage to any work. Your signature below means you have read and understood the above statement.

Your signature: _____

Your name printed _____

Date _____