Evelyn Sterne is Assistant Professor of History at the University of Rhode Island. Her research examines the intersection of religion, immigration, politics and labor in the United States during the 20th century. She is the author of Ballots and Bibles: Ethnic Politics and the Catholic Church in Providence which examines the nationwide struggle to define the American identity at the turn of the 20th century. Dr. Sterne is a 2007 recipient of a Franklin Research Grant from the American Philosophical Society.
